Whiplash

Beanbag

Jesus will never let you go
Jesus will never let you go
Jesus will never go
Jesus will never go
Whiplash, you're gonna get that don't pack up your bags but get back.
You're gonna get whiplash you're gonna get that don't pack up your bags but get back.
You're gonna get whiplash you're gonna get that don't pack up your bags but get back.
Jesus the Saviour, the only Creator don't you know Jesus will never let you go.
Mercenary destructor the mind bent destroyer.
The pleasure pot of leisure the blood infector.
Demon possessor who tries to molest you, just try and get out 'cause a lie will test you.
Blank your mind expands all the time grabbing things from the past but Jesus the Saviour, the only Creator don't you know Jesus will never let you go.
Shine down. Rain down. Fall down on me.
Slide down. Fly down one word and you're set free.
I've seen in my life the moments when He has moved in me.
I know He exists for the reasons that others deny inside to see.
I place in your arms, a gift from Omni Elohim, Jesus.
