Alive

Escape the Fate

Locked up from hell so tight
This place is dark and dirty
I've been here too many times
My blood in purgatory
Cry out but no one answers
Silence consumes my mind
Another morning after
A truth I can't denyWhen the stars are falling
And worlds collide
You feel like you won't survive
I'm bruised and broken
But I'm hanging on
As long as I am
AliveYou say I'm so diluted
You say that I am blind
You say that I will never seek the will I find
I say you'll never know me
You are no friend of mine
And I'm going to fuck you up and set your world on fireWhen the stars are falling
And worlds collide
You feel like you won't survive
I'm bruised and broken
But I'm hanging on
As long as I am
Alive
