

Halloween

Status Quo

There's a chill in the air but I don't care
I'm out and about tonight
And out on the street ain't no place for me to be
Changing faces in different places
I'm everywhere you are
I'm looking for you, you'd better beware of me

Cause I'm lonely (and it's Halloween)
And I'm only (nowhere to be seen)
And I'm lonely (it's Halloween)
I'm lo-o-o-o-one.....

Running around but I still ain't found
Quite what I'm looking for
I'm dressed to kill but I only want to thrill somebody
Trick or treat, if you can't stand the heat
It's heisse, heisse, heisse
And only the lonely are in my sights tonight

Cause I'm lonely (and it's Halloween)
And I'm only (nowhere to be seen)
'And I'm lonely (it's Halloween)
I'm lo-o-o-o-one.....

My smiling head creeps up on your bed
Glowing with desire
You'd better resign to give up without a fight
"cause it's Halloween, you know what I mean
And even your bed ain't safe
When I'm through I'll be gone without a trace in the night

Cause I'm lonely (and it's Halloween)
And I'm only (nowhere to be seen)
And I'm lonely (it's Halloween)
Halloween
