Destiny

Sinner

I saw a star in the sky nothing of the property means (it was this) moment in life (when tears) are turning you'll bleedthere was none escapes more none before or back
the sky became darkly
was it the arrival
of a my deepest vision?
or was it the end for me?Breaking the silence there's no turning back where's my destiny?I saw a dream I knew another curse forgotten came true cast into outer darkness that face came out of the bluethere was none escapes
more none before or back
of a my deepest vision?
or was it the end for me?Breaking the silence
there's no turning back
where's my destiny?
