

Good Day

Luce

Well I wake up to a sky so blue
With my girlfriend in the other room
Got the coffee on and the pancakes done
The cat 'ssleeping outside in the sun
The tv sings its morning blues
And its all the same with all the news
But she walks up, smiles, kisses me
And says your coffees done. Then starts singing.
Yeah yeah yeah
She is singing. Well Its a pretty good day.
Im lookin forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day.
again... Well its a pretty good day
Im looking forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day
Yeah well have a good day. So I lace my boots up and step outside
Catch a cab cause my car died
And I go to work with my friend Dan
Paintin houses the best we can
On my way back home I try and mix it up
Walk halfway then take a bus
And as it pulls up and the doors open
I hear the bus driver say "step up" please "STEP UP" And Im singing, And Im singing
Yeah yeah yeah
And Im singing yeah yeah yeah yeah
Some guy looks over and says how ya doin? I say... Well its a pretty good day
Im looking forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day
Yeah yeah yeah Well its a pretty good day
Im looking forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day
Yeah we'll have a good day And through the window
Theres a whole world
And Im watching all the people
All the faces and the places I have yet to go
And the sunshine now its fading
And my girlfriend shes waiting
And I bet that shes outside
Sleeping in the shade Cause its a pretty good day
Im looking forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day
Yeah, again... Well its a pretty good day

Im looking forward to tomorrow
To have a pretty good day
Yeah, we'll have a good dayIts a good day
Yeah.....yeah....yeah
Its a good day
