A Symbol of Eight

Bolt Thrower

Entering - the dawn of a new era
Confused perspectives - there is nothing left to fear
All objectives - now rearranged
No principles - to enslaveWithin the eye of chaos waits
Deep in your soul
Awakened
Symbol of eightFrom the ruins - past life of delusion
Out of darkness - destroy all false illusion
New reality - discovered with time
The death of history - under this signWithin the eye of chaos waits
Deep in your soul
Arising
Symbol of eightDrowning
In a vast sea of contempt
There is almost nothing left
Of the world you once used to know
From the chaos, new strength to grow...
...New strength will growNo gods
No king
With no country
In chaos ascending
Symbol of eight
