Beyond

Joann Rosario

It's not enough to know your name
Its not enough to read a story on a page Desperately I'm looking for another way to move beyond the place I am today

I'm moving beyond myself
beyond my pride
beyond the way I do things
To have an experience
to feel your touch
and know that you are with me
Lord help me, to move beyond

Your are more than I could have imagined Exceeding all my expectations Everyday I will make a choice to worship you no matter what it takes that's what I'll do

I'm moving beyond myself
beyond my pride
beyond the way I do things
to feel your touch
and know that you are with me

beyond my pride
beyond the way I do things
and know that you are with me

Ooooohhhhh
Only you can take me beyond where I am to where you are Only you can soften my heart, soften my heart ohhh

Only you can take me beyond where I am to where you are

Only you can
Only you can soften my heart, soften my heart, yeah

Only you can
Lord take me beyond where I am to where you are Only you can
Lord soften my heart, soften my heart

Lord take me beyond, take me beyond Oh Lord take me beyond where I am to where you are

I will move beyond
