

Khid

Comes the light
Comes the flame
Comes the child who is
    Come the sword
    Come the flame
Come the end of bliss's reign
    Come the dawn
    Come the day
Wake the softest soul up
    Come the fire
    Come the change
Lick the rose of Venus' shame
    Come the night
    Come the death
Down the path out of Seven
    Seven
Seven is my name
    Seven come
    And seven go
    And seven
    Still remain
    Seven
    Seven
Seven is my name
Seven on the grandest scale
    And seven
    Still remain
    And the light
    And the flame
Take the path on
    And the night
    And the day
Fall upon the knees of
    And the child
    In the flames
Casted out of eden
