

Waiting On The Stairs

Pela

I had a sideways stare like a signal flare she? s waiting on the staircase hey, hey! you got skin like porcelain, skin like porcelain tips me like a domino on some days but we could jump off of a cliff into a wedding ring and if the heat pipes are shut off our walls would never stingyou got a small town stare like a signal flare i? m hiding in the bathroom hey, hey! skin like porcelain, skin like porcelain poisoning me on most dayswe should jump off of a cliff into a wedding ring
and if the heat pipes are shut off our walls would never sting they? d begin to singi can? t stand that record i can? t stand you breaking down i can? t stand that record i can? t stand you breaking downcome sit next to me i am not your enemy
come sit next to me
i am not your enemy
come admit it to me
have i become your enemy?
come admit it to me
that i have become your enemy
