Stubborn

Keyshia Cole

I lay my head on this pillow
Cant sleep my bed is too cold
Nothing is bruised but my ego
This time the fault is my own
Guessed I should've called to say im sorry
Guessed i should've called to say i cared
I risked it all in just one morning
Like before when you were here
Ohhh, Why am i so stubborn when it comes to love
Ohhh, Now look what ive done
If these walls could talk they would say what i want
but im just too stubborn when it comes to love
If time could fit in a bottle
We dont have much left to waste
Lifes such a tough pill to swallow
Sometimes its bitter in taste
Guessed I should've called to say im sorry
Guessed i should've called to say i cared
I risked it all in just one morning

Like before when you were here
Ohhh, Why am i so stubborn when it comes to love
Ohhh, Now look what ive done
If these walls could talk they would say what i want
but im just too stubborn when it comes to love
I told you leave, but i miss you now
Its hard to sleep when your not around
My heart don't beat, though it makes those sounds
Im all alone now, pick up the phone now
Wanna hate you, but i love you
I can't stand you, but then i miss you so much
Gotta tell you how i feel before its too late.
Why am i so stubborn when it comes to love
So stobborn when it comes to love ooohhh
Now look what ive done
If these walls could tallk they would say what i want
But im just too stubborn when it comes to love
I lay my head on my pillow
But can't sleep my bed is too cold.
