Jeer

From Zero

You talk about it like I haven't got it in me
Your wasteful thinking gets you nowhere in your mind
On top of nothing just another passing fancy
You let me down but then you make me s-s-stay
You muthafuckers make me want to stick it in you
You tell me one thing then you're walkin' on my back
The smiling faces without trust I see right through you
You reach for something, don't you reach for me
So don't expect yourself to be there
'Cause if alone is what it is, don't play fair
And now it's time to crawl inside your 'he said'
Don't you drag me down, you'll be running from me
Running
Yeah, is this what you want?
You're always running
You can't accept the fact on how we sit above you
I raise the question of your full integrity
You're always crying like a little fucking sissy
If you could step outside, you'd f-f-fucking realize
So run for cover when the zero comes to get you
Lashing out it seems to be the only way
No room to back up what you say, ain't got it in you
Don't fuck around us when it comes to unity
So don't expect yourself to be there
'Cause if alone is what it is, don't play fair
And now it's time to crawl inside your 'he said'
Don't you drag me down, you'll be running from me
Always running
Yeah, is this what you want? Just what do you want?
You're always running
Yeah, is this what you want?
Drag me through your endless spite
(Always gonna keep you running, always gonna keep you running)
Drag me through your endless spite
(Always gonna keep you running, always gonna keep you running)
Drag me through your endless, drag me through your endless
Drag me through your
Drag me through your
Drag me through your

So don't expect yourself to be there
'Cause if alone is what it is, don't play fair
And now it's time to crawl inside your 'he said'
Don't you drag me down, you'll be running from me
Drag me, drag me, drag me
Drag me through your
(You're on the run again)
Drag me through your
(You're on the run again)
Drag me through your endless spite
(You're on the run again)
Don't deny me
(You're on the run again)
Don't deny me
(You're on the run again)
Don't deny me
