

It Was Always You

Moto Boy

I know you feel like you always have to hide

Like you have to decide

Should your heart be empty or broken.

Blinded by the light, and lighted by the dawn

I know where you've been I know how it feels

The more you love the more you break

The more you feel the more you ace

In a world full of hurt There's no need for words

It's all in your eyes, and you don't have to hide

Cause I already know, oh, baby I know

Cause it was always youOoohhh

Oh, baby it was always you
