For You Tonight

Sidewalk Prophets

You think you're alone, but you're not alone
You carry the blame like it's your own
Time to say goodbye to all the fear
Don't you know that I am right here
[Chorus]My heart beats, for you tonight
We all need someone on our side
There is a hope with arms open wide
For you tonight
You can't seperate the you from me
This is the way it was made to be

I'll be reaching out forever so take my hand just let the rest go [chorus]Whatever you go through Know I'll never leave you
Cause we're held together by love
That this world can't divide
[chorus x2](For you tonight)
For you tonight
For you tonight
