

Beautiful

Austin Plaine

We will all born again
when the winter days are dead and we shed our silhouettes We will all born again We are beautiful
we are beautiful
We are beautiful Oh I had a dream last night about my withered limbs started healing from inside inside, we will all born again
we are beautiful
we are beautiful
we are beautiful
