

Volcano

Emily Hearn

My heart was falling now it's shattered, it's like a natural disaster
We were fire and hope, now we're ashes and smoke, love burned out slow Like a volcano, a volcano, volcano gone cold When you lose the one you've wanted, it's like a part of you is haunted And you're desperate for hope but the ashes and smoke are covering the ground Like a volcano, a volcano, volcano gone cold And sometimes love, love just ain't enough And sometime dreams, dreams just turn to dust Sometimes love, love just ain't enough Baby we're ashes and smoke, like a volcano gone cold, maybe love just ain't enough Like a volcano, a volcano, volcano gone cold Like a volcano, a volcano, volcano gone cold
