

Holding a Light

Wallis Bird

Holding a light
where I once could find you only time will tell if I am in love
or in lost Following denial 'cos is easy to hide through only time will tell how I am in love or not all
Maybe what's right
isn't all we thought It would be and
maybe what's wrong
is nothing at all Who can decide?
(who can)
Measuring desire as a gift
Only time will tell if I am in love
or not at all
Maybe what's wrong
isn't all you need
it to be all and
maybe what's right
is everything
who can decide?
Who?
(You or me or you or me .)
(To give our love away
is to know what our love is anyway
To give our love away
is to know what our lover is anyway)
