

Love Makes You Beautiful

Terrence Howard

what would you think thought what you will felt like you feel inside didnt hide a thing think im beautiful
let me beautifulwhat would you paint if pictures were real they made by candle light the moon is high and still they make me beautiful just make me beautifulmother nature is running down the sea men lying angel love and blind the sea men love should be real
should be born
should after heal it worms your soul
love doesnt the neil
love makes you grown
love once it grows
loves makes you beautiful loves makes you beautifulhell knows no fury like a woman is gone when love is thorn hell know the truth aint quite it rages on until love is worn
loves makes you beautifullove should be real

loves makes you beautiful what would you think
would you like to see beautiful love is long suffering in kind love is not killing does not brag does not get puffed up does not behave indcently it bares all things breath all things shoots all things endures all things, love never fails love should be real
