Hell Is Here

Saves the Day

I don't know what to say,
The whole world's burning today.
Staring into the grave.
Hey...Smoke into the sky,
See the flames arise.
Hell is here at last.Bludgeoned buildings collapse
Bridges buckle and snap.
City swallowed by waves,
Hey...Say another prayer,
Hoping things will change!
Here under the stars.But I, I don't know why...
Everyone you know will someday die.We all have to say goodbye.
Let go of the love we share,
Take one last look into my eyes...Climb into the hearse,
To watch the ocean burn.
