El Borracho

Skaparate

Tonight I'm yours completely, sharing you with pain
Guilt and remorse have come with me and they're dying to play
Take me down with you, this feels so far from perfect
I'll try and pretend, this is my heart, be careful, it's so hard to mend
I'm down for whatever if you're down for the same
Take me, take me, take me anywhere you wanna go
She'll never know
Take me, take me, tell me everything that I wanna know
They'll never go down with you
I can't go on pretending you don't know her name
We've gone too far to turn back now I might as well stay
If you're down for whatever I'm down for the same
Take me, take me, take me anywhere you wanna go
She'll never know
Take me, take me, tell me everything that I wanna know
Let me go
I think, I've been gone way too long
I wanna know let me go, just take me down with you
Take me, take me, take me down with you
Take me, take me, take me down with you
Take me, take me, take me down with you
