Full Circle

Spineshank

My mind is only of your demise
But I find that you're still ill
My life is nothing but stolen lies
So I look for a life to stealMy kind is living a life that dies
But my eyes see human life
This time, I'm starting to recognize
But it's pointless to save my lifeI've come full circle
I've come full circle
I've come full circle
I've come full circleIt's just the meaning that I
Everything's for a lie
I'm everything I'm supposed to be
Until I dieI never wanted this
But it still happened this way
I just want to repress
But you won't let meIf you leave me now
I wonder what would happen to my world
You're just a never healing sore
Beating meI tried believing your honest face
'Cause it helps make the time pass by
Unlike that time, I've been dead for days
So I mourn her then and confineI've come full circle
I've come full circle
I've come full circle
I've come full circleIt's all what you did to me
Then I became this way
But still the time slips away
It's forcing me to stayI tried staying on top
But you fucked me instead
I don't want to commit
I just want to forgetIf you leave me now
I wonder what would happen to my world
You're just a never healing sore
Beating meIf you leave me now
I wonder what would happen to my world
You're just a never healing sore
Beating meIf you leave me now
I wonder what would happen to my world
You're just a never healing sore
