My Stunning Bride

Moments In Grace

Finally I turned
And then I walked out
After writing down
The words that you will
Wake and red on a new day.
I know your suffering
I know your suffering
I know your...
You have save a moment,
In a vault,
Keep it from the sadness,
That I've brought,
When I am gone.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
Down
Your cries are dying out.
Stunning bride.
Don't look for innocence
In my eyes.

You will find a way
To face another day.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
There are rasons to die
There are reasons to die.
Please don't find one now.
Now. now. now.
Tears running down,
I block out the sound
And fade away.
I left as you slept,
It's for the best.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
Your faithfulness is holding you down.
There are reasons to die
There are reasons to die
Pleas don't find one now

Please don't find one now.
