

Whatever

Iggy Pop

Whatever

I'm sittin' like a stone on a solitary evenin'
Without my girl, life has no meanin'
She didn't say why and she didn't say what for
She just said, "I've been thinkin' it over"
And whatever, whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play
And her voice just fades away

Whatever

The solution to love, I haven't found yet
Does God have curlers and a hairnet?
Everything I say turns out to be a no no
The feelings I had, were they only promo?
Whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play
And her voice just fades away

Whatever

Now, I'm just one of the Joes on the corner

I guess I ought to stay home and watch the porno
I wanna get close but no one will let me
I wish someone would react out and get me
Whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play and her voice just fades
She doesn't wanna play and her face just fades
She doesn't wanna play and her touch just fades away

Whatever

Whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play
And her voice just fades away
Whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play
And her voice just fades away
Whatever, whatever, whatever
She doesn't wanna play
And her voice just fades away
