

Good Gone Girl

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Could you believe the same old story
Yeah, it never bores me, though I've heard it all before
Her name was Georgia and she was gorgeous
When she adored ya the whole room would get to know
Like a movie that is filled with lust
Coming at you with a double D bust.
At the bed of a wounded soldier
In a rush cause she's gettin older.
Hanging out in the fancy bars
With the boys who play guitar
Listen up cause I've got to warn ya
She's gonna make it out to California
Hey you, what's a good girl like you
Doing in this crazy world?
Where's the good gone, girl
Dance, dance, to the life you wanted
When you were only 17
With a good girl dream
Ooh, good gone girl
Could you believe
The same old phonies, those painted ponies
That you've ridden all before
Her name was April but she was hateful
Enough to make you want to run right out the door
I can tell you what you want the most hang around for the champagne toast
When the end of the night gets tricky
Don't you know that beggars can't be picky
Lookin' out for a man who's golden
Doesn't matter if he's old, he's rollin'.
Coming at you like a desperate hunter
Sugar daddy but he's just a munter.
Hey you, what's a good girl like you
Doing in this crazy world?
Well it's good gone girl
Dance, dance, to the life you wanted
When you were only 17
With a good girl dream
Hey you, what's a good girl like you
Doing in this crazy world?
Well it's good gone girl

Dance, dance, to the life you wanted
When you were only 17
With a good girl dream Ooh, good gone girl
Ooh, good gone girl
Ooh, good gone girl She's walking around all over the town
Needs somebody to notice but the goodness gets her down
She's happy to choose somebody to use
Good gone girl, she's got nothing left to lose She's walking around all over the town
Needs somebody to notice but the goodness gets her down
She's happy to choose somebody to use
Needs somebody to notice but the goodness gets her down
She's happy to choose somebody to use
Needs somebody to notice but the goodness gets her down Ooh, good gone girl
