Awol

Ohlayindigo

When a girl goes out I know what other guys are thinking how long will you be out and how much are you drinking but no not you your trust is ever reassuring
My heart is with you baby what we have's enduring

I've been searching high
I've been searching low
Looking for you everywhere I go
Can you hear me calling
Marco Polo
Baby I'm still searching for

Another way of loving you
way beyond the ocean blue
Another way of loving me
Away from the atlantic sea
Another way of loving, loving, loving
Another way of loving, loving loving

Even though you're half the world away I need you showing Reassuring that our love is what will keep you going
That you still care when I'm not there to hold around you Always with you in your heart
(I need to tell you that)
I love it when you call me up around the morning Telling me that I'm the one for your our love's transforming Redefined, realigned I miss your tender kiss whatever we had then it can't compare to this Compare to this oh no no

I've been searching high
I've been searching low
Looking for you everywhere I go
Can you hear me calling
Marco Polo
Baby I'm still searching for

Another way of loving you

Another way of loving me
Away from the atlantic sea
Another way of loving, loving, loving
Another way of loving, loving loving

Can you hear me calling
Can you hear me calling
Another way of loving
What you're looking for
Can you hear me calling
(In front of your eyes)
Can you hear me calling

I've been searching high
