

Tell Me Something

Katie Herzig

I wasnâ€™t born so long ago
But thereâ€™s a lot I know I donâ€™t know
I never told a single lie
I cross my fingers â€™till I die
Oh

I have a secret little lie/life
That I come home from every night
I wash the makeup off my face
Then lie in bed where I feel safe

Iâ€™ll tell ya somethinâ€™ you donâ€™t know
Iâ€™ll tell ya somethinâ€™ thatâ€™ll make you whole
Well Iâ€™m tired

I caught a glimpse of you tonight
Yes I could see you through the light
You smiled behind those big blue eyes
You smiled away my lonely night

So tell me something I donâ€™t know
Tell me something thatâ€™ll make me hold on Iâ€™m tired
(Gotta get a hold, Iâ€™m tired)

It seems my days are all the same â€™Cause Iâ€™m twisting all that I can take/tame
But I donâ€™t think you play that game
I bet you dance out in the rain
So tell me something I donâ€™t know
Tell me something thatâ€™ll make me hold on tight
Hold on tight
