

Where The Truth Lies

Richard Barone

I don't mind when life's unkind
If there's a reason why
And I don't mind when love is hard to find
Because I'm waiting for the sunriseWhere the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth lies
Where the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth liesI don't care when life's unfair
Because I realize
That there's a plan for every grain of sand
And love is never unwiseI don't mind when life's unkind
If there's a reason why
I don't mind when love is hard to find
Because I'm waiting for the sunriseWhere the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth lies
Where the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth liesWhat you saying, what you saying
What you saying to me?
I've got reason to believe
Someone's trying to deceiveAnd what you doing, what you doing
What you doing to me?
I've got reason to believe
You've got something up your sleeveI don't mind when life's unkind
If there's a reason why
And I don't mind when love is hard to find
Because I'm waiting for the sunriseAnd I don't care when life's unfair
Because I realize
That there's a plan for every grain of sand
And love is never unwiseWhere the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth lies
Where the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth liesWhere the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth lies
Where the truth lies, I wanna be with you
Where the truth liesI don't mind, I don't mind
I don't mind, I don't mind
