For the Love

Emily Clibourn

I'm lost in the twilight of your last fire
And I know you'll burn out tomorrow
And when you do I will not die

I'll kiss your dark red lips
Put my hands in your hair, cause you know
It's the last time you've got me under your spell
It's a sin and I spin

Your eyes blaze
I'm satisfied in your gaze, babe
You make the girls go crazy
I'm satisfied in your fire

Isn't is sad how a girl goes mad for the love of a man

You taste as sweet as honey and lavender
Your label says drink me, so I drink you
And let it burn

I'll kiss your dark red lips
Put my hands in your hair, cause you know
It's the last time you've got me under your spell
It's a sin and I spin

Your eyes blaze
I'm satisfied in your gaze, babe
You make the girls go crazy
I'm satisfied in your fire

Isn't is sad how a girl goes mad for the love of a man

Oh, I know you're not any good, any good for me
Oh, it shows I've got the strength to carry on without you
I will run when the sky turns to fire and air is black
I will run, I will run

Isn't is sad how a girl goes mad for the love of a man

I'll kiss your dark red lips

Put my hands in your hair, cause you know
It's the last time you've got me under your spell
It's a sin and I spin

I'll kiss your dark red lips
Put my hands in your hair, cause you know
It's the last time you've got me under your spell
It's a sin and I spin

Your eyes blaze
I'm satisfied in your gaze, babe
You make the girls go crazy
I'm satisfied in your fire

Isn't is sad how a girl goes mad for the love of a man
