Blasphemy

Yyrkoon

BlasphemyI have created a life of my hands
I have just succeed in creating a thing
Nor any female belly
Will never know how to realizeBlasphemy!?
But before which god?!
Blasphemy!?
But before which god?!A god rejected by the miserable humanity
He said he created in his own image
I won't let myself be hindered
By the failure of your idolBlasphemy!?
But before which god?!
Blasphemy!?
But before which god?!The only blasphemy is to take pleasure
In the insignificance that I refused
I want to try what your God didn't succeed
And I have just triumphed
