

Unforgivable

Evergrey

Lonely thoughts from a lonely mind
He fights for recognition
Desperate tries only increasing the pressure
Falls blind unseen foreverThe children of today and the children of tomorrow
Forced out of a life of their own
We are the sinners of these days and only bringers of sorrow
We're only bringers of sorrowUnforgivable sin, temptation too big
Unforgivable sin, temptation too big
Unforgivable sin
UnforgivableWounds inflicted a bloodstained soul
Distinct marks of violence
Skin fragments under nails and a God forsaken fate
No holy water can save him nowFalse prophet, a deceiving smile
Arms open, here's trust to find
A man of god, a temptation too big
Unforgivable sinNo holy water can save him now
And no prayers can cleanse the lust
He used, abused and he raped the trust
The innocence of a life is lostUnforgivable sin, temptation too big Unforgivable sin, temptation too big
Unforgivable sin, temptation too big
