Romanticide

Tal Bachman

Another grand surprise
Your rapier wit cut me down to size
You love to pass your time
Lookin' for ways to play the thorn in my side
It's deja vu one more timeWhoever said to take it on the chin
Whoever said that good guys always win
Has never seen the sorry state I'm in
A victim of romanticide againMy little atom bomb
This is the last time you'll do me wrong
So listen when I speak
I can't go on forever turning my cheek
Your whippin' boy's about to speakWhoever said to take it on the chin
Whoever said that good guys always win
Has never seen the sorry state I'm in
A victim of romanticide againI've paid my bills and cleaned out my closet
Slammed the front door tight
I can't believe that I ever thought
This all would work out rightWhoever said to take it on the chin
Whoever said that good guys always win
Has never seen the sorry state I'm in
A victim of romanticide againWhoever said to get down on your knees
Give your ground or try your best to please
Has never seen my lonely misery
A victim of romanticide, that's me
