

Then The Heartaches Begin

The Hollies

My sadness it is growing
I'm sure it's started showing
This feeling's getting stronger
I can't hold back out much longer It's swelling deep inside emotions I can't hide

Then the heartaches begin
I'm telling you
The heartaches begin

I need someone to guide me someone to reconcile me to take away this pain before it starts again
But no one listens to me
Can't control what's set in deeply

[Chorus:]
Four stone walls surround me
An empty shell's all you see
My former self's departed
A man who's broken hearted Loneliness is what I fear holding on to all that's dear

[Chorus:]
I'm telling you child
