

L.U.V

BTOB

Let's vow a love that won't change
I used to look for a love that never changed as soon as I saw her face
I could feel it was fate no matter what they say They're just jealous of us even if it's hard every day We've got to hold on Don't forget, that with my love
I'll protect you until the end of the world
Don't be afraid
Don't fear it no matter what happens I won't let go of your hand
No one can tear us apart
I won't believe in a predetermined fate
This eternity that Heaven has assigned to us is just that you were meant to be my destiny
What I'm feeling now, without a doubt, is that I love you Just from holding onto your small hands, it fills up my heart
Today's starry sky that we saw together I still think about it, no matter how much time passes
This glimmer is not a past, but a light that illuminates the future
I loved, and loved, but it's still not enough
I will pour out all of my feelings to you
When you're sad, come cry within my arms because I will take away all of your pains
Last piece to my puzzle yeah, you complete me
I'd do anything for you you're the girl of my dreams don't want anybody else only you beside me through my high and my low
I just want you to know across the ocean I'd row if that's the only way to see you I'd do it for sure we'd be the best combo hey, I love you to death girl
I just want you to know that I'd do anything for you to you my life I bestow
Strongly, deeply, let's vow our love
I spread, and spread, but it's still not enough
I'll devote my heart's wings to you When you're happy, your radiance takes flight and leads the world
A world without you, there's no such thing in the map I drew
That road that you travel on I'll follow you through it In the corner of this world, that we could miraculously meet
please believe in it and don't let it go until forever
I loved, and loved, but it's still not enough (for me)
I will pour out all of my feelings to you (I'll pour all of it) When you're sad, come cry within my arms (All the sadness, into these arms) because I will take away all of your pains (wash them all out)
A world without you, there's no such thing in the map I drew
That road that you travel on I'll follow you through it In the corner of this world that we could miraculously meet

please believe in it and don't let it go until forever
