I Got A Feelin'

Joe Diffie

I'm out here stranded on this Oklahoma road
Nothing but a broken truck, heat and dust and a million high line poles
If only I could tap the line I'd be just fine
If I could talk to her right now'Cause there's a voice inside of me that's saying something's wrong
'Cause I've tried a hundred times and a hundred dimes
To reach her on the phone and like the sun my hearts sinkin'
'Cause I'm thinkin' it don't matter anyhowI got a feelin' she ain't feelin' what I'm feelin' anymore
I got a sneakin' suspicion love is walkin' out the door
And now I'm dealin' with a heartache like I've never felt before
I got a feelin' she ain't feelin' what I'm feelin' anymoreI like this ramblin' life but what a price to pay
To think I'd let a dollar sign and a diesel whine drive her love away
I've got a real strong premonition
She ain't missin' me as much as I miss herI got a feelin' she ain't feelin' what I'm feelin' anymore
I got a sneakin' suspicion love is walkin' out the door
And now I'm dealin' with a heartache like I've never felt before
I got a feelin' she ain't feelin' what I'm feelin' anymoreI got a feelin' she ain't feelin' what I'm feelin' anymore
