

Distracted

Brooks deForest

Good Evening How many sports were played today?
How many goals were scored and saved?
How many cars did ya see crash?
Who won the race? Who came in last? Come on..
Lets get distracted..
As the play is enacted..
Lets get distrac-ted..
(this is the game)
(it is the game)
All your life Bread, circus
pro-duced..
just for you How many sitcoms are more than laughs?
How many plots take you down their paths?
How many movies stars hit those charts?
How many outcomes known, before they start? Come on..
Lets get distracted..
As your beliefs get planted..
Lets get dis-trac-ted..(this is the game)
(it is the game)
All your life Bread, cir-cus
produced..
just for you What is news?
Can we read between the spin?
Or will enough lies become the truth? And what is truth?
Do we really want to know?
Or we happy with the dream we're in? And what are dreams?
Do they end when morning comes?
Or do we sleep through out our lives? And what is life?
Can we go beyond our fears?
Or have they succeeded to keep us apart? Come on..
Lets get distracted..
As the play is enacted..
Lets get dis-trac-ted..(this is the game)
(it is the game)
All your life Bread, cir-cus
pro-duced..
for you How many products will fill your void?
How many truths have been destroyed?
How many lies are balenced and fair?

How many people have really time to care? Really time to care? Come on..

Lets get dis-trac-ted..

As your beliefs get planted..

Lets get dis-trac-ted..(this is the game)

(this is the game)

All your life Bread, cir-cus

pro-duced..

just for..
