Pale Skin, Angel Eyes

Toxic Lab Rats

Last night I wasnâ€™t ready for this
Low life in the fast lane but I wasnâ€™t too pissed
I met my Sunday queen down the alley
Soaked in ashes with a dirty manâ€™s need
But she was as pretty as a day can be
I met my Sunday queen down the alley

Outnumbered by the look in her eyes
I settled for a decent good bye
I was nothing by the look in her eyes
I fell apart for the very first time

Came out too hungry for the love Iâ€™d never find
I woke up broken with a story and a fucked up mind
But she lay next to me, as naughty as I was
Pale skin, angel eyes, you and I

Tick tock she was a bomb in my pocket
But we took the wrong turn and kept on going
I met my Sunday queen down the alley
As she was dragging my sorry ass home
I was shouting out her name to loud
I met my Sunday queen down the alley

Outnumbered by the look in her eyes
I settled for a decent good bye
I was nothing by the look in her eyes
I fell apart for the very first time

Came out too hungry for the love Iâ€™d never find
I woke up broken with a story and a fucked up mind
But she lay next to me, as naughty as I was
Pale skin, angel eyes, you and I
