

There Is No One But Me

Nancial

But darkness is inside
Still lives in me
And this very day
It wants to be freed
 Make it free
Please, make it free
I wake up and see - the room is empty
 There's no one but me
The world is open to the feelings I have
It's the way I've chosen and I feel safe
 I got up and flee
I try to escape from this rage
 It's taking over me
There's no place I can hide
 I keep running away
I'm afraid I won't endure this ride
 And I will cry
 And I will die
