

To the Ends of the Earth

Nate Wants To Battle

The saturation fades and turns to gray it's overcast with envy hands are reaching pulling me away and yet im still ascendingi still i still belive it
i feel it giving beneath my weight my day
my way will surface and see the sun so follow me
now take a minute
and revel in it
and see how much you're worth i'll fight and defend i'll see this the out 'till end
to the ends of the earthbreaking down my walls my lights and doors i'm making room for something stacking up the pieces one by one i'll build it out of nothing i still
but i'll survive the fight so stay by my sideso follow me
to the ends of the earthwe'll own the night and the sun will still rise the rain starts to cease and i can see clearlyso follow me

and see how much you're worthso follow me
