

Lost Keys (Blame Hofmann)

Tool

Excuse me? Doctor? Do you have a moment?

A moment? What's the question?

More of a situation, a gentleman in exam 3

What's the problem?

That is the problem, we're not sure

You got the chart?

Right here

Not much here to say

No doctor, no obvious physical trauma. Vitals are stable

Name?

No sir

Did someone drop him off?

Maybe we could speak to them

Let's get some background on this fella

No ID. Nothing

And he won't speak to anybody

Well, let's say hello

Good morning, I'm Dr. Lawson

How are you today? How are you today?

Look son, you're in a safe place

We wanna help in whatever way we can

But you need to talk to us

We can't help you otherwise

What's happened? Tell me everything
