Hello World

Amely

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Hello world,
have you even missed me?
Lookin' down from outer space,
'cause I've seen the stars, the sun and the sea but now I'm back to this placeShow me a sign, the reason for me
All of the time that I've spent dreaming
of somewhere that I'll feel alive
So show me a sign to guide me back home,
out of the skies, into the unknown somewhere that I'll feel alive...Hello world, is there something missing?
The life we had, it seems to be misplaced.
I gave it all to make you see me but all your energy has been erased.Show me a sign, the reason for me
All of the time that I've spent dreaming
of somewhere that I'll feel alive
So show me a sign to guide me back home,
out of the skies, into the unknown
somewhere that I'll feel alive...Show me the way to be in your eyes bigger than this life, far away from this war insidehello world, have you even missed me lookin down from outer spaceShow me a sign, the reason for me
All of the time that I've spent dreaming
of somewhere that I'll feel alive
So show me a sign to guide me back home,
out of the skies, into the unknown
somewhere that I'll feel alive...Hello world, hello world, hello world, hello worldhave you even missed me?
