Countdown's Begun

Ozzy Osbourne

Watching blood stained windows

He must just love the pain

See the children crying

His mother's died againDig her grave much deeper

The fatal price she paid

I hope I'm there to hold her

When she comes back againI see the death and the disaster

There is no happy ever after

The time has come

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begunIs the Armageddon

Finally here at last?

You may see the mushroom

But you won't hear the blastDon't need a self made prophet

Don't need a holy war

Don't need another leader

To even up the scoreI'm cursed with living on a fault line

The doomsday clock was made by mankind

No place to run

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begunI see the death and the disaster

There is no happy ever after

The time has come

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begunCountdown's begun

Countdown's begun

Countdown's begun
