

Everyday's Torture

Golden Earring

From the Album:

* Eight miles high You're my everyday's torture

You're a burnin' light

When dark times surround me

You're my love, you're my fight

You're my everyday's torture

That's what no one denies

My spirit, my splendour

Did I loose, tell me why

I'm a man, know my destiny but it seems, love is dead for me

I'm hung up on a woman's resolution

There's nothing left but a dream, an illusion

You're my everyday's torture

That's what no one denies

My spirit, my splendour

Did I loose, tell me why

Yeah, yeah, yeah,

free me, free me, free me

I saw you powerful, I saw you happy

But I only lived for myself

God, I need you so badly

But I expect no help

You're my everyday's torture

the gun at my head

You're my everyday's torture

the knife at my chest
