Freedom

Love And Theft

I cover my eyes as the sun's pouring in
No, I never thought last night would end
And there's smoke in the house
I woke up on the couch again
I got nowhere to go and no one to see
The birds out my window are singing to me
And I don't know their song
So I hum along out of key
And this place sure feels haunted
I guess I got what I wanted
Freedom
This three dollar coffee, it sure tastes like hell
But I don't have to answer to anyone else
I just sit here in peace till I wanna leave, oh well
And I'm here without you where I wanted to be
I guess I got what was coming to me
Freedom, freedom
Me and the dreamers burning up the midnight sky
Foolish believers throw it all away and wave goodbye
I open my eyes as the sun's going down
All by myself, there's nobody around
So this is freedom, so this is freedom
This is freedom, this is freedom, this is free
