

Frightened City

The Shadows

I met a girl once, I thought she was the one for me
I was so taken by her personality
I met a girl once, who took my heart and love away
She looked an angel vision walking through the day
I took her to parties, bought her everything I could
I treated her just like a queen
I told her I loved her, marry her I said I would
Didn't realize just what a fool I've been
I met a girl once, she did me wrong behind the back
Then when I've found out I felt like my heart would crack
I told her I loved her, marry her I said I would
That if love's cruel, broken hearts are what you learn
I took her to parties, bought her everything I could
I treated her just like a queen
I told her I loved her, marry her I said I would
Didn't realize just what a fool I've been
