Shopping Mall

Pete Yorn

In your eyes all is good
We can be just for you
Every night, it's ok
We believe, We can say
I don't think I'm coming alongEvery walls a shopping mall
Someday we'll leave and never come back
We were born to be discarded
I don't... I don't mindWhen you're gone you'll be a star
Tell me what you're doing now
Some might say you're bein' a fool
Everyone's gonna laugh at you
I don't think you know where you're fromAll the days have come undone
Just because they don't have the clue
Too afraid to be you
I don't, I don't mind...I can't tell you...anything
You believe in somethin' else
I can't give you...anything
You don't already have
I can't tell you...anything
You didn't already know
I can't give you...anything
You don't already haveI can't tell you...anythingI can't give you...anything
