Baptism by Fire

Jools Holland; Tom Jones

I am a strong man
Not such a young man
I will do all I can
For that special woman
My arms will stay strong
My love will burn along
Like the fire in the heart's song
If she's the right one
I know how to love
I ain't no liar
There's a flame in my heart
It burns like a fire
I've got all this love
I can give you if you let me
And I'll be your baptism by fire
I'll be your baptism by fire
'Cause I am a strong man
Not such a young man
I will do all I can
For that special woman, ooh
I know how to love

I ain't no liar
There's a flame in my heart
It burns like a fire
I've got all this love
I can give you if you let me
And I'll be your baptism by fire
I'll be your baptism by fire
Oh, I've searched for you
So you must know that it's true
And how I found you
Yes, I found you
I'm gonna leave it all up to you
I know how to love
I ain't no liar
There's a flame in my heart
It burns like a fire
I've got all this love

I can give you if you let me
And I'll be your baptism by fire
I'll be your baptism by fire
