Don't Blame Yourself

Andrew Belle

Oh
I don't get to sleep very well anymore because of you
Oh
And all my jeans are torn from begging on my knees in front of you
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Oh
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
I don't like to be very sentimental if I don't have to be
Oh
But I think that I just may have glued my hands to yours
If you had asked me
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Oh
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Oh
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try

But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Oh
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Oh
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be

Someone better than me

Oh

Don't blame yourself

Oh

Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try

But you need someone to be

Someone better than me in your life

You need someone to be

Someone better than me in your life

You need someone to be

Someone better than me in your life
