Understanding

B2k

You know, this is a little
Little somethin' for the brothers huh
A little anthem
To let the, let the ladies know
What a brother needs
We need a little understandin'
You know what I'm sayin'
Like this
Check it
La, da, da, dat, dat, da, da
La, da, da, dat, dat, da, da
I'm young, like to hang with my crew, have fun
But it seems like all the girls I know
Never understood that flow
Like, this one when I first met her she was, so cool
But when I told her I need space, she got all in my face
Realizing what I need, the kind of girl to be for me
Now I see it's gonna take some understanding
To be the one I'm lookin' for
The perfect one I need
You gotta be sexy and secure
And be understanding
'Cause I'm the kinda guy that likes to twirk
No drama that's just me
If you wanna be the one I want
Then be understanding
(Now check it)
One girl she had a little game, personality for days
Insane, the cuttiest little hottie chick
She had the body and whip to go with it
But she had a problem with insecurity, jealousy with me
I'm not the one for drama though, so I had to let her go
Realizing what I need, the kind of girl to be for me
'Cause now I see it's gonna take some understanding
To be the one I'm lookin' for

The perfect one I need
You gotta be sexy and secure
And be understanding

'Cause I'm the kinda guy that likes to twirk
No drama that's just me
If you wanna be the one I want
Then be understanding
If you understand me
Take my hand and show me
That you can be all I need
And we can fall in love
To be the one I'm lookin' for
The perfect one I need
You gotta be sexy and secure
And be understanding
'Cause I'm the kinda guy that likes to twirk
No drama that's just me
If you wanna be the one I want
Then be understanding
To be the one I'm lookin' for
The perfect one I need
You gotta be sexy and secure
And be understanding
'Cause I'm the kinda guy that likes to twirk
No drama that's just me
If you wanna be the one I want
Then be understanding
To be the one I'm lookin' for
La, da, da, dot, dot, da, da
You gotta be sexy and secure
La, da, da, dot, dot, da, da
'Cause I'm the kinda guy that likes to twirk
No drama that's just me
If you wanna be the one I want
Then be understanding
