Tears in May

Missing Heart

Tears in May
AaahhWhispering voices in the night
Speaking to me of the mystery of love
In the twilight of my mind
I can see the shadows of death
AaahhTears in May - show my pain
And wash my love away
Like the rain
Tears in May - tell me why
Was our dream born to die
All in vain
Tears in May
Tears in May
AaahhThe secret world of our dreams
Is still waiting in my soul
And when the moon is shining through the clouds
My love will take control
AaahhAnd I hear Cassandra calling
When the stars of fate are falling
I'm so lonely and I cry those tears
Tears in May
Tears in MayTears in May - show my pain
And wash my love away
Like the rain - tears in May
Aaahh
