More Than Love

Garrett Kato

More than love, itâ€™s what you said to me when you were drunk.
We were all telling stories about the hometowns we came from.
And later on, we found each other in our favourite song.
The one where the hard rain falls on the blue-eyed sun.
You know some people, they donâ€™t give a damn about you like I do, oh no.
And I can tell you a million reasons why, but I donâ€™t try to no more.
Because itâ€™s more than love, more than anything I could understand.
(More than love, more than love, yeah).
Itâ€™s more than love, more than anything that could be explained.
(More than love, more than love, yeah).

These times were hard; we were spending so much time apart.
And money is a tricky thing always taking more it gives.
But you know darling, I canâ€™t be the same now here without you. Oh no!
And I can tell you a million reasons why, but I donâ€™t try to, cause you know. Because itâ€™s more than love, more than anything I could understand.
(More than love, more than love, yeah).
Itâ€™s more than love, more than anything that could be explained.
(More than love, more than love, yeah).

Itâ€™s more than love, more than any man could comprehend now, oh now.
Itâ€™s more than love, more than anything I could understand.
(More than love, more than love, yeah). Oh, oh oh oh.
