Belial's Bride

Darkness, it's embracing me. I look out to the abyss of eternity. I have closed my eye for the last time: Crossing over the great divide.

Moving now, at the speed of thought; enraptured by a distant call. A new mission fills my desire as this damned soul becomes one with fire.

I have been given a new identity: A demon spirit with torture dreams.
In submission to the prince of darkness: Reborn to fuck this world of its purity!
In submission to the prince of darkness: Sent to fuck this world of its purity!

Shaking violently as I penetrate your soul. You fulfill my fantasy as you loose all control.
I rape your mind with the sins I crave. Polluting your existence: making you more enslaved.
I am the minister of the evil one: Empowered to posses you to indulge in my lust.
You hear my voice whispering in your ear: When you obey my thoughts I make you mine.

When you obey my thoughts I make you mine!...

Now the cycle is complete. I am you and you are me. We'll share this soul as two entities: Gratifying flesh in unity.

Become one with me....
